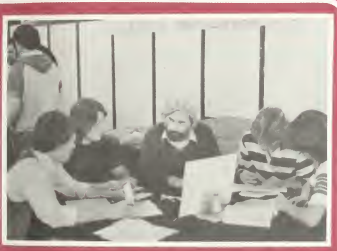
covenant college
lookout mountain, tennessee

give me a chance, o Lord, i pray



to be used by You somehow today.

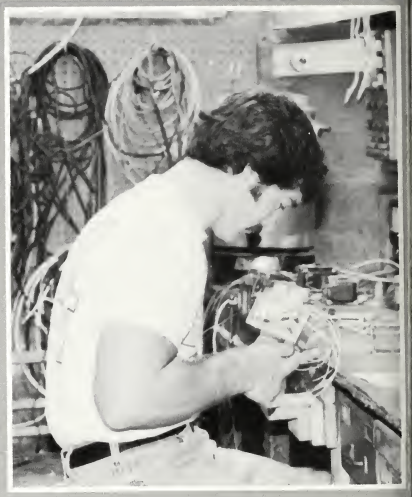
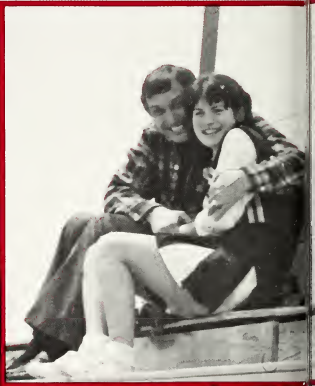
that in some manner i may find a way to enrich and bless others' minds.

guide my hand and my words



that they will do

Your will and work.



Jesus got up from the last supper before His crucifixion, took off His outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around His waist. then He poured water into a basin and began to wash His disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around Him. when He had finished washing their feet, He put on His clothes and returned to His place. "do you understand what I have done for you?" He asked them. "you call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for that is what I am. if I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. I tell you the truth: no servant is greater than his master. once you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them."

it was Christ who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to prepare God's people for service, so that the body of Christ may be built up . . .

by this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, that ye have love one for another.

"times turned gold"

the day, the hour, the place have flown.
a smile, a touch, the diamond-dance in blue eyes:
the joy of remembrance is known.

excitement was stacked upon the night,
books were deserted, men were gallant, women coy.
moonlight and mountains changed the scope of flight.

someone cried for the mountains to fall:
fear and pain are meriless masters.
a servant's silent touch divided the tear, made it small.

at all times, in every place,
servants stoop to lift Him up,
direct thirsty eyes to His face.

so, what do you think of college food?

o Jesus, I have promised
to serve Thee to the end;
be thou for ever near me,
my Master and my Friend;
I shall not fear the battle
if Thou art by my side, nor wander from the pathway
if Thou wilt be my Guide.

o Jesus, Thou hast promised to all who follow Thee, that where Thou art in glory
there shall Thy servant be;
and, Jesus, I have promised
to serve Thee to the end;
o give me grace to follow,
my Master and my Friend.

o let me see Thy footmarks,
and in them plant mine own;
my hope to follow duly
is in Thy strength alone;
o guide me, call me, draw me,
uphold me to the end;
and then in heaven receive me,
my Savior and my Friend.

"blessed are the humble" (to rudy and collyn schmidt, who daily illustrate matthew 5 for me.)

let's not pretend we've cornered all the truth.
let's not squelch dissent with a hob-nailed boot in the name of orthodoxy, or some false view of piety. we can leave room for other opinions (yes, there may be others!) without fearing for our own.
after all, this is only the start, not the end, of our learning. don't think that just because you've got a handful of sheepskin that you can survey the universe from a perspective which only God holds. just remember: the Lord preserves the simple;
there's no such promise for the self-proclaimed wise.

"I LIKE REFORMED'S PRACTICAL MINISTRY EMPHASIS."

Leon Sulzer, Student

"I'm going to RTS because they're giving me the tools I need for my ministry. I'm getting a solid Bible base and consistent reformed theology, but as a Christian Ed major I'm getting a lot more.

"The RTS faculty has not only taught me biblical principles, they've shown me how to put them to work in the church. In fact, they encouraged me to take this year off to intern in Atlanta's Perimeter Presbyterian Church under Randy Pope (on the right). It's this practical application that really excites me about Reformed.

"So if you're looking for more than solid theology, consider Reformed. In fact, why not write them today.

"They'll fill you in on the programs I'm experiencing."

WITH SO MANY GOOD SEMINARIES AVAILABLE TODAY, WHY WOULD SOMEONE CHOOSE REFORMED?

Dr. Luder Whitlock, President, Reformed Theological Seminary

Any seminary, if it's committed to excellence, should place a high priority on the Scriptures. At seminary, students are encouraged to evaluate life in light of God's Word. They are given opportunities to study, meditate, and plan for the direction in which God leads them.

The students who choose Reformed are serious about their study. They come to RTS because they know we'll do everything we can to help them learn as much as possible about the Scriptures. And that's why we maintain such a high standard for biblical scholarship. Our students learn Hebrew and Greek so they can teach and preach with certainty. Some even take internships in churches to put into practice what they are learning.

It is our reformed theology that requires this kind of biblical scholarship. As reformed Christians, we are constantly reminded to conform our faith and the practice of that faith to God's standards as set forth in His Word.

We sincerely adhere to the Westminster Confession of Faith, but while doing so, strive to walk a carefully balanced line between unchallengeable doctrine and open-mindedness. Where the Bible is clear, we stand clear. Where the Bible offers no definite conclusion, we hesitate to be dogmatic.

We believe our name reflects the heritage and vision behind our seminary. We are evangelical, committed to the inerrancy of the Scriptures, to winning the world for Christ, and to the application of the Word to all of life.

If you would like to hear more about RTS, write to me today, or call (601) 922-4988.

"I LIKED REFORMED'S SOLID ACADEMIC EMPHASIS."

[illegible]y Pope, Pastor

"When I applied to RTS I knew what I wanted: solid, reformed theology and a biblical basis for a preaching and evangelism ministry. That's exactly what I got.

"But unlike some schools, Reformed didn't make me feel trapped by their theological system. The faculty taught with conviction, yet they displayed an openness and warmth I didn't expect at a seminary.

"Because of what I found at RTS, we're sending several people from my church to Reformed. Leon Sulzer (on the left) is one of them. He's there exploring a different area of ministry from mine—but I know he'll be just as prepared when he leaves as I was.

"Explore RTS for yourself; write them today. They'll give you a solid biblical foundation. And more."

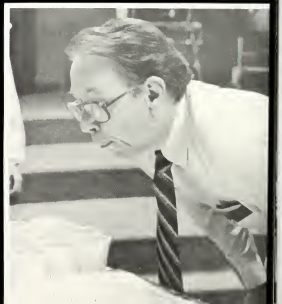
help us all, Lord, i pray

* — poem by diana kay willis

dr. hamm, you have served each one of us in a very special way, and we would like to thank you for it. you have been a constant example before our eyes of what it really means to be a humble servant of God. the Lord has commanded us to put the needs of others before our own. this task is not an easy one, but you have shown us that it is not impossible. because your living example depicts what this yearbook attempts to convey, we would like to dedicate the 1982 tartan to you.
we love you!



. . . to be used by You somehow today.
